

Chix in the Kitchen

THE COOP SCOOP

Serving up the fresh & delicious dish on chix

Volume 1, Edition 2

June 2010

Women Who Wine

The Pend d'Oreille Winery hosted the popular Women Who Wine event on June 10, 2010 at 5 pm.

Lisa Richards the founder of Chix in the Kitchen was the featured guest speaker. Each of the women in attendance received a copy of Lisa's coveted Guinness chocolate cake recipe that was featured in her restaurant Sheehan's in Bellingham, Wash. During the evening drawings were held for some other great gifts including one for new members. Connie Taylor won a limited edition Charter Chix 50's glamour apron. There was a great turnout and several new Coops have formed as a result.

Name Your Coop Contest

The Finger Likin' Chix just raised the bar for the Name Your Coop Contest by creating this adorable logo. A couple of other Coop names are Cin Cin Chix and Pollos Loco. Let us know what your Coop name is. We would love to share it with the other Chix!

How to Start Your Own Coop

Make a list of girlfriends who like to cook, entertain and just hang out together.

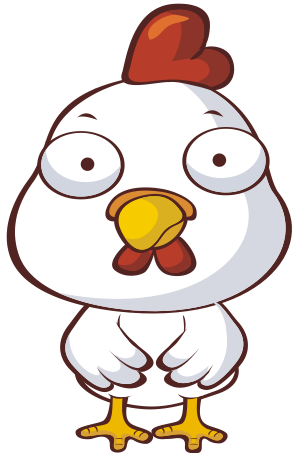

Invite them to meet for lunch or a glass of wine and invite them to join Chix in the Kitchen

Name your Coop and plan to meet once a month

We provide you with tips, themes and recipes for your event – What could be easier!

What is Chix in the Kitchen?

Chix in the Kitchen is a club for women of all ages who love to cook and entertain. Chix meet once a month with their "Coop". Each month we provide fun ideas, themes and recipes to try with your Coop. The recommended Coop size is six Chix. Every four to six months, the Chix get together at a Chix Mix for fun and games including Chix Challenges and Coop Competitions. Want to gather a bunch of Chix and create a chapter in your town?
